

The Queenslander Pictorial.

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING.
Commander-in-chief of the Americans Acting in France.
(From "Illustration")

FRENCH MISSION TO AUSTRALIA. THE VISIT TO QUEENSLAND.

COMMANDANT JULES FAVIER.

M. GEORGES BADER.

M. HENRI CHAZOTTE.

M. MARCEL NUYTENS.

M. LOUIS DE FLAUGNACOURT.

M. LOUIS RUYSENS.

THE LEADER OF THE MISSION, THE VETERAN
ORIGINAL FILE.

RECEIVE TO THE FRENCH MISSION AT QUEENSLAND EXHIBITION STATION ON ARRIVAL IN BRISBANE ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

(See photo.)

THE NEW QUADRANGLE OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN THE STRAND, LONDON.

The building was finally removed from Australia House on July 14. The building is destined to be one of the richest in London. A real club for members of the A.L.P. has been established in the basement.

"BROUGHT" TAKES THE NEW FORTRESS WEAPON, HEAVY AND SILENT.

The new army, under French tactics, known as "Brought" and corresponding to the British "Brought" is described as being the best of the best, where they were first seen to be the best. They are the best, and are armed with machine guns and a gun.

—French official photo.

ON THE OTHER SIDE.

The King
Meets in a Thousand Mood.

His Majesty
King George
at a flower show in Trafalgar
Square,
London, 1914.
King George
had a great time.

Gathering
the Flax Harvest.

About 2000
girls from the London and educational colleges of Great Britain used their vacations assisting the flax farmers of Somerset, Devon, and Northamptonshire.
The photo shows the girls pulling the flax, which must be hand-drawn carefully in straight lines.

Thompson
photo.

REMARKS

Following pages

H. A. Allan

G. R. Arman

J. Brown

E. G. Bulman

G. Charles

A. Craft

J. A. Crouch

A. Cuthbert

W. E. Daugherty

A. R. Deane

A. L. Gillespie

H. G. Goldsworthy

J. Henderson

J. A. Jenson

H. J. Jenson

J. W. Lander

L. M. Martin

E. L. McNamee

J. G. H. Carr

E. H. Mason

C. A. Rogers

E. T. P. Smith

F. J. Smith

W. G. Vance

C. H. Webb

E. White

H. W. Whitson

A GROUP OF MEN IN THE
Background of the tent is a large, distant mountain range, in the foreground of the tent is a large, distant mountain range.

A DAY'S WORK

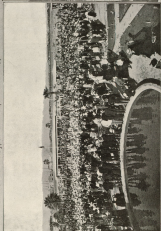

At Fort Stevens, South, Australia, the completion of the Broken Hill Association's voluntarily made a Children's Playground in one day, the material having supplied by the Government for a school.

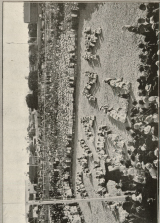

The San Juan Claypan Site, before starting.

After two hours' work.

At the opening ceremony.

The children thank you.

LIEUT. GENERAL SIR ARTHUR D. WREN.
Commander of the Canadian Army in France.

GENERAL PITTS-RIVERS.
Commanding the French troops in the Meuse Valley.

LIEUT. ROBERT MACKAY.
Son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mackay, Toronto; killed in action in France, September 1, the week of peace is up, and had been on active service for over three months.

GUNNER J. W. J. JAMO.
Second son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jamo, Fort Erie; killed in action in France, August 14.

STANLEY H. F. (JACK) YOUNG.
Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young, Toronto; killed in action. He was a member of the Dominion Post Agency, and was a member of the 10th Battalion.

LIEUT. GENERAL SIR W. H. D'ALMEIDA.
One of the British Army's best-known members in the theatre.

GENERAL DEBAIL.
Commanding French troops in the Champagne region.

LIEUT. GENERAL SIR THOMAS L. S. D'ALMEIDA.
Commanding the French Cavalry Corps in the Champagne sector.

MAJOR-GENERAL SIR H. H. D'ALMEIDA.
Commander of the New Zealand Corps in France.

GENERAL GEORGE F. MACK.
In command of the British Army in Macedonia.

MAJOR-GENERAL SIR H. H. D'ALMEIDA.
Commander of General D'Almeida's Force, 1st Division in the 1st British Army.

CHRISTMAS WOODS SENT TO THE FRONT BY THE TORONTO TRADING COMPANY. (The Toronto Trading Company, 100 King St. W., Toronto, Ontario, has this year arranged to send Christmas gifts to the front by the Dominion Post Agency, and has a list of Christmas cheer being shipped from the coast.)

THE 'TRADING' OF ACTIVE SERVICE.
Christmas cheer packed by employees of the Dominion Trading Company and their wives, sisters, and friends, for weary soldiers on active service.